Application no. 40104/10
Dickson v. the United Kingdom

Dear Madam,

I write to inform you that on 12 October 2010 the European Court of Human Rights, sitting in a single-judge formation (V.A. de Gaetano), decided to declare inadmissible your application lodged on 5 July 2010 and registered under the above-mentioned number. The Court found that the requirements of the Convention had not been met.

The Court found that the final domestic decision within the meaning of Article 35 § 1 of the Convention had been given on 27 April 1998, more than six months before the date on which the application was submitted to the Court. Accordingly the application had been submitted too late.

This decision is final and not subject to any appeal to either the Court, including its Grand Chamber, or any other body. You will therefore appreciate that the Registry will be unable to provide any further details about the single judge's deliberations or to conduct further correspondence relating to its decision in this case. You will receive no further documents from the Court concerning this case and, in accordance with the Court's instructions, the file will be destroyed one year after the date of the decision.

The present communication is made pursuant to Rule 52A of the Rules of Court.

Yours faithfully,
For the Court

Clare Ovey
Head of Division
